Petitioner: LESLIE A. BURCHAM	)	MEMORANDUM OF MARITAL
	)	SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT
and	)
Respondent: MICHAEL ROBERTSON	)

1. This Memorandum of Marital Settlement Agreement is made and entered into at San Diego, California on the date of execution (the last dated signature of a party), by and between LESLIE A. BURCHAM, Petitioner, and MICHAEL ROBERTSON, Respondent.

2. Petitioner and Respondent have entered into a Marital Settlement Agreement (the "Agreement").

A. The purpose of the Agreement is to settle the parties' rights and obligations pertaining to:

(1) Identification and confirmation of their respective separate

1 separate assets and separate obligations;

2 (2) Identification and division of their community or co-owned
3 assets and community or joint obligations;

4 (3) Spousal Support; and,

5 (4) Child custody, child sharing, and child support.

7 B. This Agreement also sets forth the parties' understandings relating to
8 specific matters over which the Court shall retain jurisdiction.

9 3. The Agreement, together with its Exhibits, contains proprietary, confidential
10 and privileged information, the disclosure or dissemination of which would cause
11 irreparable injury to the parties or the assets awarded thereunder. The parties have 12 elected to file this Memorandum of Marital Settlement Agreement with the Court. This 13 Memorandum sets forth the provisions of the Agreement the parties desire to have 14 specifically recited in the Judgment. This Memorandum and the entire Agreement shall 15 be incorporated into the Judgment as if set forth in full, even though only this Memorandum
16 is attached to the Judgment. The parties agree that each of them shall submit to any order
17 requiring them to carry out and perform each and every provision of the Agreement. In the 18 event that it is necessary to seek an order to either enforce or modify the Agreement, the 19 Agreement shall not be filed with the Court, but either party's original or a true copy of the 20 Agreement shall be lodged with the Court for the purposes of enforcement or modification.

23 4. With regard to any Judgment that incorporates the Agreement, the parties
24 waive a statement of decision, the right to a new trial, the right to petition for a rehearing,
25 the right to appeal, and any rights under the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940,
26 as amended.

1 5. Either party may obtain a Judgment of Legal Separation by Declaration
2 pursuant to Family Code Section 2336 or by personal appearance on the uncontested
3 default calendar before a Commission, Judge, or Judge Pro Tem without further notice to 4 the other party.

5 6. The parties acknowledge that they are fully informed of their rights
6 concerning child support, including without limitation those rights set forth in California's 7 Statewide Uniform Child Support Guidelines. The child support provisions set forth in the 8 Marital Settlement Agreement are in the best interests of the minor children. The 9 Agreement regarding child support is made freely without threat or duress. The needs of 10 the minor children will be adequately met under the Agreement. Neither party is receiving
11 public assistance at this time. The right to support has not been assigned to any county
12 and no application for public assistance is pending.

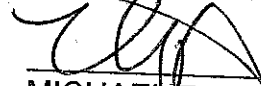

13 7. The parties have executed a Custody/Visitation Stipulation/Waiver
14 Attachment (Family Code Section 3048), which shall be filed with the Court concurrently
15 with this Judgment of Legal Separation.

16 8. All of the provisions of the Agreement are hereby made a part hereof as fully 17 and complete as if set forth in full herein.

MEMORANDUM OF MARITAL SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

NOTICE OF RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES
Health-Care Costs and Reimbursement Procedures

IF YOU HAVE A CHILD SUPPORT ORDER THAT INCLUDES A PROVISION FOR THE REIMBURSEMENT OF A PORTION OF THE CHILD'S OR CHILDREN'S HEALTH-CARE COSTS AND THOSE COSTS ARE NOT PAID BY INSURANCE, THE LAW SAYS:

- 1. Notice. You must give the other parent an itemized statement of the charges that have been billed for any health-care costs not paid by insurance. You must give this statement to the other parent within a reasonable time, but no more than 30 days after those costs were given to you.
- 2. Proof of full payment. If you have already paid all of the uninsured costs, you must (1) give the other parent proof that you paid them and (2) ask for reimbursement for the other parent's court-ordered share of those costs.
- 3. Proof of partial payment. If you have paid only your share of the uninsured costs, you must (1) give the other parent proof that you paid your share, (2) ask that the other parent pay his or her share of the costs directly to the health-care provider, and (3) give the other parent the information necessary for that parent to be able to pay the bill.
- 4. Payment by notified parent. If you receive notice from a parent that an uninsured health-care cost has been incurred, you must pay your share of that cost within the time the court orders; or if the court has not specified a period of time, you must make payment (1) within 30 days from the time you were given notice of the amount due, (2) according to any payment schedule set by the health-care provider, (3) according to a schedule agreed to in writing by you and the other parent, or (4) according to a schedule adopted by the court.
- 5. Disputed charges. If you dispute a charge, you may file a motion in court to resolve the dispute, but only if you pay that charge before filing your motion.

If you claim that the other party has failed to reimburse you for a payment, or the other party has failed to make a payment to the provider after proper notice has been given, you may file a motion in court to resolve the dispute. The court will presume that if uninsured costs have been paid, those costs were reasonable. The court may award attorney fees and costs against a party who has been unreasonable.

6. Court-ordered insurance coverage. If a parent provides health-care insurance as ordered by the court, that insurance must be used at all times to the extent that it is available for health-care costs.

- a. Burden to prove. The party claiming that the coverage is inadequate to meet the child's needs has the burden of proving that to the court.
- b. Cost of additional coverage. If a parent purchases health-care insurance in addition to that ordered by the court, that parent must pay all the costs of the additional coverage. In addition, if a parent uses alternative coverage that costs more than the coverage provided by court order, that parent must pay the difference.

7. Preferred health providers. If the court-ordered coverage designates a preferred health-care provider, that provider must be used at all times consistent with the terms of the health insurance policy. When any party uses a health-care provider other than the preferred provider, any health-care costs that would have been paid by the preferred health provider if that provider had been used must be the sole responsibility of the party incurring those costs.

The parties declare and agree to the following:

This Court has jurisdiction over the minor child/children as California is the child/children's home state. Both parties were personally present at the execution of the attached custody/visitation agreement, both have knowledge of their right to a hearing in this matter and both waive their right to the hearing based upon the attached custody and visitation agreement. The parties agree the habitual residence of the child/children is the U.S.A.

Both parties acknowledge being advised that any violation of this order may result in civil or criminal penalties, or both.
